Loggers Rest - Bed and Breakfast

Loggers Rest, an outstanding local destination designed and built specifically to cater for the Granite Belt's ever expanding tourism industry. Located in a prominent position with eye catching colonial style this property has proven to be a very desirable retreat for those wishing to enjoy the wineries, fine restaurants and national parks of Stanthorpe and surrounding areas.

Designed to offer 4 ensuited bedrooms with spacious lounge and dining rooms for guests with additional ensuited bedroom, kitchen, dining room and partially enclosed outdoor entertaining deck for owners / managers.

All guest bedrooms measure a very generous 4m x 4m with built in robes, reverse cycle air conditioners and along with the use of high quality fixtures, fittings furniture make for a very comfortable stay.

The high set ceilings, polished timber flooring along with the huge wood heater and massive open verandahs, which stretch the length of 3 sides, all combine to create a welcoming ambience which in turn is obviously creating plenty of repeat business.

Owners quarters are just as impressive with an extra large main bedroom,
