Idyllic Rural Lifestyle - Close to Wineries and National Park

Classically styled timber home set in an idyllic location practically on the door step of Girraween National Park surrounded by untouched hills with a natural water course through the front of the property while only a stones throw to some of the Granite Belts fine wineries and restaurants.

Double storey home with 2 bedrooms, bathroom, lounge and dining rooms on the lower level with a third bedroom and retreat or office space on the upper level. Classic styling with high raked ceilings, exposed timber beams and timber staircase the major features.

Kitchen is well appointed with 900mm free standing gas stove, plenty of bench and storage space, dishwasher and timber benchtops to compliment the overall styling.

Home is well positioned on the land with a Northern and North westerly aspect from the open front verandah offering an ideal spot to capture the winter sun on the frosty mornings while internally the house will be kept to a comfortable temperature year round with a large wood fired heater along with a reverse cycle air conditioning system.

Set on a 75 Acre allotment, partially cleared with the remainder of the land being natural granite bush with native wildlife. Water supplied from a large dam and 2 rainwater tanks with a capacity of approx 75,000 litres. Very good storage and workshop space supplied from a 15m X 9m Colorbond shed.

Property is presented in very good condition throughout and offers a great
